

POINT LOBOS

Hand-Crafted Japanese Ceramic

LUNADA
BAY TILE

POINT LOBOS PATTERNS

3" x 3" Mosaic

3 1/2" x 9 1/2"

Liner 3/4" x 9 1/2"

POINT LOBOS COLORS

Whitewash

Tide Pool

Point Lobos is intentionally crafted to reflect the organic character of the seashore. Wide variation in color and texture is inherent to the product.

POINT LOBOS COLORS

Driftwood

Amber

Point Lobos is intentionally crafted to reflect the organic character of the seashore. Wide variation in color and texture is inherent to the product.

POINT LOBOS COLORS

Kelp Forest

Conifer

Point Lobos is intentionally crafted to reflect the organic character of the seashore. Wide variation in color and texture is inherent to the product.

Named for the California coastline where land meets the Pacific, POINT LOBOS captures elemental beauty in glazed stoneware. Crafted in Japan with traditional techniques, each tile features iron spots and organic glaze variations inspired by the wild character of the Northern California coast and the handmade aesthetic of mid-century studio pottery.

Please visit LunadaBayTile.com for our complete product offerings, applications and installation instructions.

Scan code for more information on the Point Lobos collection

© Lunada Bay Tile. All Rights Reserved

